

Charis Hills News

Volume 1 Issue 1: June 18, 2010

One Fish, Two Fish, Three Fish, Four Fish!

By Nicholas Williams

"Blub, Blub, Blub," said the fish.

The fish at Lake Charis didn't have much to say. Here is what we've been able to get out of them...

We asked how many times they've been caught. "Blub, blub, blub," they replied.

We asked the three fish what their names were. "Blub, blub, blub," they answered.

The interview on Wednesday was a quiet one. Why? Because they're fish!

Charis Hills Cook Loves Camp!

By Tripp Cory

Carlene is the cook at Charis Hills. She says Kim might cook fried chicken this week. She has never been to camp before. We haven't had ice cream sandwiches this week and Carlene isn't sure if we will. Carlene says, "I work at Charis Hills for the overall experience."

Nurse Samantha!

By Sydney Hilley

Samantha is from Millen, Georgia. She became a nurse because her brother and sister inspired her. They are special needs kids and she always took care of them and the rest of the family and she was the nurse of the house. Samantha has three siblings total. Samantha was in nursing school for a long time but has only been a nurse for 1 1/2 months. Outside of camp she has treated lots of broken bones, strokes, and a child with a punctured lung. At camp, she has treated plenty of scraped knees and some infections. This week at camp, she treats 42 campers. We are glad to have Samantha for she is a wonderful nurse and we will always keep her in our hearts.

Meet the Camp Founder and Get Inside Looks on the Camp

By Hayley Von Heuvel

Have you ever wondered who was the founder of the camp and what he did before he started the camp? Well here are the answers. Rand is the name of the founder of the camp and he had a different job since he was 14 years old. He started the camp because he believed that he should share God's word. Since he started the camp, the number of campers are getting a little bigger each year. The cabin names are from James, Rand's friend and director. He picked them from animals that you can see here at camp. Camp Charis has been fun and we hope to see you again and hopefully next year.

First Session at Camp Charis!

The writers of Camp News!